

Far South Coast Sea Slug Census, April 2020

The list below is a guide to possible sites for your self-directed exploration. You can survey any site from Green Cape in the south to Batemans Bay in the north.

Note: please take care of your own safety and the safety of those around you. This includes following the latest advice regarding COVID-19.

possible location	activity	Best tide conditions
Green Cape	rockpools	Low tides and be very careful
Bitangabee Bay	snorkel/dive
Edrom	snorkel/dive
Davidson's WS beach,	rocky shore ramble/snorkel	Low tides for rock pooling
Eden Shelly Beach	snorkel/dive, rambles rockpools	Low tides for rock pooling
Lennards Island	rocky shore ramble/snorkel/dive?	Lowest tides for rock pooling
Bar Beach	snorkel/dive
Merimbula Wharf	snorkel/dive
Spencer park to Bar Beach	estuary walk	Low tide
Merimbula Lake Bridge	snorkel
Short Point	snorkel/dive
Turingal Head	snorkel/dive
Lagoons/Lakes, Bournda, Wallagoot, Tanja,	walk/snorkel	Low tides for walking survey
Bermagui Blue Pool	snorkel/swim	This can also be a good night time snorkel. Avoid high tides when waves can wash into the Pool
Bruce Steer Pool Bermagui	Snorkel/swim or walk	Low tide best for a walking survey, most of
Camel Rocks	rocky shore ramble	Low tides for rock pools
Narooma Wharf	walk/snorkel?	Careful of strong tide flow all round Narooma sites
Narooma Australia Rock	rocky shore ramble	Low tides
Mill Bay Boardwalk, Narooma	rocky shore ramble/snorkel	Low tides for rock pooling

Check the weather and tide times for your surveys

Tide times for Bermagui – just change the location to where you wish to go

Weather for Bermagui – just change the location for where you want to go